House rules

DIE BÜCHEREI
im Eyachtal

1. Quiet and consideration

- Please be quiet and considerate, and set mobile phones to silent.
- Avoid loud conversations, phone calls and disturbing others.

2. Getting on with one another

- We treat one another respectfully and politely.
- Aggressive, insulting or harassing behaviour will not be tolerated.

3. Items and equipment

- Treat items, furniture and technology with care and report any damage at once.
- Items may only be borrowed with a valid library card.

4. Eating and drinking

- No eating in the rooms; drinks brought in from outside are not allowed.

5. Cleanliness

- Please keep the rooms clean and leave your place tidy.

6. Photography, video and sound recording

- Recordings only with the prior consent of the library management.

7. Animals

- Animals may not be brought in, except assistance dogs.

8. Children

- Children are welcome; their parents or the adults with them are responsible for them.

9. Bags and coats

- We accept no liability for coats and personal belongings.
- Please keep large bags and rucksacks closed.

10. Devices and internet

- Use the library's devices and wi-fi only in accordance with the applicable terms of use.
- Illegal content, or content harmful to young people, is prohibited.

11. Alcohol, drugs, smoking

- People under the influence of alcohol may be refused entry.
- Smoking and vaping are prohibited everywhere, including within 10 m of the library.
- Possessing or taking drugs leads to immediate removal from the premises.

12. Safety

- Please keep emergency exits clear; instructions from staff must be followed.

13. Theft and misuse

- Theft and deliberate damage lead to immediate removal from the premises and, where appropriate, a report to the police.
- Attempted fraud (with RFID tags, for instance) also has consequences.

14. Right of the house and exclusion

- The library staff exercise the right of the house.
- Breaches may lead to removal from the premises, a ban or devices being blocked.

These rules serve the safety and the pleasant company of all. Thank you for your understanding!
